Conclusion

The Combined Canterbury Provinces of Federated Farmers thanks Environment Canterbury for the opportunity to further submit on its Proposed Land and Water Regional Plan. We are committed to the sustainable management of the region's land and water resources and look forward to continuing to work constructively with Council in the future.

Federated Farmers wishes to be heard in support of its submission.

Introduction

Federated Farmers wishes that the further submissions already made by it will be carried forward and remain valid.

Some amended further submissions are set out below, to replace our previous further submissions on those particular submission points. We request that these be considered in conjunction with our previous further submissions.

1-2-2 4	192.1	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend second sentence on page 1-4 to read: Intensification of farming, particularly with irrigation , has the potential to increase nutrient losses to water bodies.	Support – Promotes sustainable management.
1-2-6 4	192.2	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend Section 1.2.6 by adding a reference to Part 104 (2A) of the RMA. No specific wording provided.	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
2-6-0 2	192.3	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Delete reference to Table 1 in its current form and refer to limits which are achievable (in a cost-effective way), appropriate for the water bodies concerned and consistently applied.	Support – Promotes sustainable management.
2-6-0 2	192.4	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Acknowledge that the Zone Committee collaborative approach is a more appropriate mechanism for the establishment of catchment-scale freshwater outcomes and limits, with full understanding of their implications for the community.	Support – Promotes sustainable management.
2-10-21 5	192.5	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend the definition for "Changed" - Remove part 1 or instead relate to additional irrigated area. For part 2 it should be rewritten as a combination of a percentage (20% - which is consistent with the error and uncertainty associated with OVERSEER) combined with a number once a threshold is reached to avoid rewarding poor performers (25kg/ha threshold with a +5kg/ha as the maximum change. The explanation given in the Key Points section of INZ's submission justifies such an approach.	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
2-10-54 7	192.6	Irrigation New Zealand Inc,	Amend the definition of "Efficiency" as follows: means that for any given level of output inputs are minimised; and includes dynamic , both technical and	Support – Promotes sustainable

		Christchurch	allocative efficiency	management.
2-10-56 7	192.7	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend the definition of "Environmental Management Strategy for Irrigation". See submission	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
2-10-83 9	192.8	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend the definition of "Infrastructure" as follows: e) a water supply distribution system, including intake structures, storage, distribution structures, channels and pipes, and application equipment – a system for irrigation .	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
2-10-85 9	192.9	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend the definition of "Irrigation" as follows: means the application of water to land for the purpose of assisting the production of vegetation or stock on that land, other than by naturally occurring rainfall, springs or rainfall run-off.	Support – Promotes sustainable management.
2-10-202 15	192.11	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend the definition of "Water body" to make it clear it does not include farm or irrigation races and storages.	Support – Promotes sustainable management.
2-10-015	192.12	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Add a definition for " Water Permit Transfers " as follows: Temporary water permit transfers are of short duration, typically less than 5 years, and are made between properties (titles) or individuals. Permanent transfers encompass all other scenarios. However, they do not include land sale related transfers of water permits.	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
3-11-01	192.13	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend Objective 3.11 by breaking it into two separate objectives as follows: "Water is available for abstraction to support a variety of socio-economic activities". "Maximum socio-economic benefits are obtained from the efficient storage, distribution and use of water available for abstraction".	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
3-22-0	192.14	Irrigation New	Amend Objective 3.22 as follows:	Support in part –

2		Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Community outcomes for water quality and quantity are met through managing within limits and by utilising a range of different methods so optimal outcomes are achieved.	Promotes sustainable management.
3-0-0 1	192.15	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Add an addition Objective: “The socio-economic contribution of sustainable food and fibre production within Canterbury and nationally should be maintained and grown”.	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
4-1-0 1	192.16	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Delete Table 1 in its current form.	Support – Promotes sustainable management.
4-4-0 1	192.17	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend Policy 4.4 as follows: Water is managed through the setting of freshwater objectives and managing within limits. In doing this the maintenance of the life supporting capacity of ecosystems, customary uses, provision of community and stock water supplies, water for irrigation, food and fibre production, hydro-electricity generation and other economic activities, and the maintenance river flows and lake levels for recreational needs should all be considered. Water is managed through the setting of limits to maintain the life-supporting capacity of ecosystems, support customary uses, and provide for community and stock drinking water supplies, as a first priority and to meet the needs of people and communities for water for irrigation, hydro-electricity generation and other economic activities and to maintain river flows and lake levels needed for recreational activities, as a second priority.	Support – Promotes sustainable management.
4-6-0 1	192.18	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend Policy 4.6 as follows: Where a water quality or quantity limit is set in Sections 6-15, new resource consents will generally not be granted if the granting would cause the limit to be breached or further over-allocation to occur.	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
4-0-0 1	192.19	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Add an additional Policy as follows: Where there is an over-allocation of water quantity or quality, an all inclusive, catchment based approach, that recognises existing investment will be adopted for its resolution.	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.

4-8-01	192.20	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Acknowledge that the regional concept, as set out in schedule 16 or the ZIP priority outcomes, is evolving in real-time - as more feasibility information comes to hand.	Support – Promotes sustainable management.
4-11-05	192.21	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend Policy 4.11 (c) (v) as follows: (v) not have any adverse effects on the drinking water quality of the groundwater, including any that pose risk to public health.	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management but needs to refer to significant adverse effects.
4-19-06	192.22	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend Policy 4.19 as follows: Sedimentation of waterbodies as a result of land clearance, earthworks and cultivation is prevented managed by maintaining continuous vegetation cover adjacent to waterbodies, or capturing surface run-off to remove sediment and other contaminants.	Support – Promotes sustainable management.
4-26-07	192.23	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend Policy 4.26 by either accepting the amended definition of Water body in the defining section of specifically exclude irrigation and stock races from this policy or Add an exemption clause for irrigation and stock water races.	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
4-28-07	192.25	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend Policy 4.28 as follows: ...and finally, introducing, through plan changes to Sections 6-15 of this Plan, allowances targets within an Audited Self Management framework, or other alternative methods, to achieve collaboratively agreed catchment-based water quality outcomes.	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
4-31-07	192.27	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend Policy 4.31 as follows: ...by demonstrating the nitrogen loss the discharges from the proposed activity, when assessed in combination with the effects of other land uses or discharges, will not prevent the water quality outcomes of Policy 4.1 being achieved or the nitrogen discharges from the property are a significant and enduring reduction from existing levels.	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.
4-36-09	192.30	Irrigation New Zealand Inc,	Amend Policy 4.36 as follows: to allow the following existing discharges, providing a continuous improvement and Good Management	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.

		Christchurch	Practice approach is implemented.....	management.
4-46-010	192.31	Irrigation New Zealand Inc, Christchurch	Amend Policy 4.46 as follows: for group, or community drinking water or stock water supplies..... provided the water supply has an active asset management plan that addresses water use efficiency, and is managed to restrict.....	Support in part – Promotes sustainable management.

Conclusion

The Combined Canterbury Provinces of Federated Farmers thanks Environment Canterbury for the opportunity to further-submit on its Proposed Land and Water Regional Plan. We are committed to the sustainable management of the region's land and water resources and look forward to continuing to work constructively with Council in the future.

Federated Farmers wishes to be heard in support of its submission.
