What do you want Environment Canterbury to do?

Cutting out open fires will only make a minor impact on Timaru's winter air.

Put their energies into retaining our rain water either by
1. tanks in gardens
2. dams on farms

Having used a heat pump it circulated air & I had a constant cough & the heat was less than satisfactory. Open fires give out a warmer, constant heat as long as dry wood is used. Gas is very expensive. We need open fires in times of power cuts or snow disasters.
