Thanks Sarah,

We have discussed the minute with Jacobs/SKM and we are getting them to do a brief summary in line with that requested.

In the interim we can advise in respect of the 'HortNZ v Central Plains' issue discussed in paragraph [2] that both statements referred to (i.e. the evidence in chief and the rebuttal) are being provided jointly by HortNZ, Central Plains and various other entities (refer Annexure 1 of the rebuttal).

The assumption that the references within what is referred to as the Central Plains rebuttal statement are in fact references to what is referred to as the 'HortNZ and others' evidence in chief is therefore correct – noting the above of course.

Kind regards,
Ben
