Public Transport Comments

I am recently retired, and having been self employed, have never had the time to engage in a submission such as this. We will soon be a one car family, and expect to use buses .I have used the bus three times in the past 54 years. My opinion is that public transport should be a service not a profit centre. Buy new, smaller buses, and axe the poorly used runs. I f the rates go up, then so be it. Try to be proactive and stop pussyfooting and kowtowing to the moaning minority.

I am recently retired, and having been self-employed, have never had the time to make a submission. We own an approved wood burner and intend to use it and its replacement until they cart us away. Christchurch City Council has done a magnificent job cleaning up the air. I have been a resident since 1973, it was ugly then. How much further can you expect to go, what with diesel engines, and other uncontrollable sources of bad air. Time to give the log burners owners a break. The air is fine now.

I am recently retired, and having been self-employed, have never had the time to make a submission. I guess thats why the different moaners and whiners all seem to be grey haired old farts. When I get my rates account, I divide it by 365. There's no way in the world I could provide all that the city does for me for that amount of money. When the bleaters get om your case, always answer, YES, and mention how much extra the cost will be. Our Mayor and councilors dont get voted out because of the cost of rates, its time someone had the Cajones to be up front, you are after all, running the biggest business in town. I laud your recent decision to buy up houses in hopeless sites because of flooding etc. Good leadership and management since Leanne arrived. With regard to some of the issues regarding the appearance of our city et environs, remember that there are hundreds of service club members in Chch, and they love a challenge. a good way to get the beaches, rivers, parks etc, cleaned and kept litter free. Dont get the H & S, people involved, we are all grownups and can care for ourselves. Thank you for this opportunity, I feel much better. Good Luck.
