Public Transport Comments

Please provide any comments.

As a future resident of Westmorland (currently building) I'm am completely dumbfounded with the proposal to stop bus services to the suburb. This was one of the reasons we chose to buy in the area - it meant our kids could bus to school. How is this teaching the younger generations to drive less and use public transport more???

I also believe the bus service would be utilized even more if it went from Westmorland to Colombo St and into the city rather than Eastgate. Eastgate is not a 'go to' destination for the majority of residents in Westmorland.
