Reasons comment:

Our main reason for opposing these consents are that the roads around the whole area are not suitable for numerous heavy trucks. Jones Road/Railway Terrace is bad enough at the moment with traffic without adding more. Not all trucks will go to the new motorway and Templeton can't cope with the overflow. On several occasions at the moment I have had to stop at the corner where Jones Road meets Railway Terrace because a truck is on my side of the road as the bend is too sharp.
