

Date and time

Mon 25th Nov 2019, 9:30 am - 1:00 pm

Location

Ilex Café

Christchurch Botanic Gardens, Christchurch Central City, Christchurch 8013, New Zealand

Event description

This final hui for 2019 picks up our theme of Te kāhui tūao (Constellation of Volunteers) and uses the nine stars of Matariki to guide our story of the environmental movement in greater Christchurch (past, present and future). This story is BIG and we will focus on the present stories.

League of Live Illustrators will help us capture the stories, harvest the nuggets of wisdom and create our constellation in visual form.

Facilitator: Shelley Washington of Environment Canterbury

Agenda:

9:00 am Doors Open, networking and cuppa

9:30 am Welcome and Introductions and Purpose

- Overview of concept and opportunities to tell our story- Ali Bower, Environment Canterbury

10:00 am The story of the Restless Forest- Sarah Mankelow, Christchurch City Council

10:30 am Interactive Session- Build and Connect our Constellation. Come prepared to share your story by answering 3 questions:

- WHO are you/your organisation,
- WHAT you do/are known for,
- WHY is this work important to you

10:45 am Morning Tea- as you move around the room

11:30 am Interactive Session continues with Sharing our WHY

12:00 am Opportunities and where to in 2020

- Hosting a student intern- Clare Murray PACE, University of Canterbury
- INTECOL Wetland Conference, October 2020- Philippe Gerbaux, DOC

12:15 Lunch and Tours of new Christchurch Enviro Hub

