Reasons comment:

Bathurst are a very environmentally responsible organisation. They do so much more to ensure that the environment isn't harmed during excavation and is returned back to its original condition or even better condition than it was before excavation. We in New Zealand should be thankful to have employer's such as Bathurst who provide job opportunities to so many families which is very vital in the current situation we are in.

Consent comment:

I strongly recommend that we support companies such as Bathurst rather than be a stumbling block and stop encouraging people who protest and do nothing for the economy and the country. LET THEM GET ON WITH THE GOOD WORK THAT THEY DO!!!
