Reasons comment:

My elderly parents live near this site. This site is so close to town, and our lovely sought after urban homes. It will be noisy, and an eyesore. Given our nor wester winds, there is no way dust and dirt can be 100% eliminated. It's a morally bankrupt concept to even be proposed. The council should own this land - it should be kept intact Rangiora is a fast growing town and any spaces that we can keep green, intact, for both birds and plants - should be held on to, for our burgeoning population to enjoy. We owe our kids this, as much as our aging population's health and peace of mind.
