

Date/time: Friday, 12th March 2021. 9:00am-12:00pm, Lunch 12:00-1:00pm (optional)

Venue: Waimakariri Room, Environment Canterbury 200 Tuam Street, Christchurch

Objectives:

- ✓ Basic understanding of what an LTP is, and the process local government must follow.
- ✓ Why it is important to make a submission and how to do it
- ✓ What's in the Long-Term Plan(s) that might be of interest to community groups with an environmental focus

Agenda:

- 9:00am Welcome, Blessing, Housekeeping and Objectives for the day
- 9:10 am Introductions around the room
- 9:15 am LTP 101 General Session:
- ECan LTP 101- Video (5 min)
  - What happens to your submission after you hit the send button- Katy McRae- CCC
- 9:30 am Why you should make a submission and top tips for making a good one- Hamish Rennie- Lincoln University (30 min)
- 10:00 am Morning Tea
- 10:15 am What is in the LTP that might be of interest to community groups:
- Environment Canterbury- Cr. Vicky Southworth (20 min)
  - Christchurch City Council- Tony Moore (20 min)
  - Selwyn District Council- Andy Spanton (10 min)
  - Waimakariri District Council- Kate Steel (10 min)
- 11:15 am Speakers Panel for Q&A
- 11:30 am Introduction of EXPO - Representatives and resources available to talk with people one-on-one. Councillors are welcome to take part in the EXPO.
1. Environment Canterbury- Adrienne Lomax for Regional and Strategic Leadership, Caroline Hart for Water and Land, and Morag Butler for Climate Change and Community Resilience.
  2. Christchurch City Council- Sarah Mankelow and Kate Russell for Parks and Community Partnerships, Clive Appleton for the Waterways Partnership, Tony Moore for Climate Change and Sustainability, Brendon Winder for Red Zone Manager.
  3. Selwyn District Council- Andy Spanton for Biodiversity
  4. Waimakariri District Council- Kate Steel for Biodiversity, Parks and Recreation

5. Envirohub- Annie Brown and Kat Miller to sign people up for submission writing workshops
6. Lincoln University Student- to talk to people about help with submission.

12:00 pm Lunch - Blessing and close event - people carry on talking and eating

1:00 pm End and breakdown EXPO