Any further comments on the Fees and Charges Policy?

I was unable to commit the time to read the 321 pages, however I believe ECAN intends to increase mooring fees to cover salvage costs. Firstly, the fees went up approximately 100% 2 years ago, supposedly to cover this. Secondly, why should mooring owners cover this cost? There is no linkage between legitimate mooring owners and boats that sink on untended moorings. The issue is ECAN are not policing and removing illegal and unregistered moorings and are now proposing to penalize legitimate mooring owners.
