

- When: Tuesday, 29 June 9:30- 12:30
- Where: Tūranga Central Library, TSB space level 1

Objective of the day is to showcase two story gathering projects and get people thinking about their own stories and how to capture them. Come back to the group about the Environment Canterbury Long-Term Plan decisions and highlight opportunities for community groups.

Agenda:

- 9:15am Doors open, coffee/tea available
- 9:30am Welcome, Karakia, Introductions, House Keeping- Alison Bower
- 9:40am What is in the Environment Canterbury LTP for Community Organisations- Vicky Southworth
- Next steps for contestable fund- Alison Bower
- 10:00am Environmental Leadership and Heritage of Canterbury- Diana Shand
- A fun quiz– people involved in conservation and the environment community
 - The Project- how it all started and why it is important
 - Who are covered in the oral histories
- 10:45 am Morning tea
- 11:00 am Te Kāhui Tūao- Constellation of Volunteers project- Alison Bower
- Journey to complete this project
 - Show the film
 - Group discussion on what to do with this resource
- 11:30 am Why do stories matter? How to collect, protect and share the information- Victoria Bliss
- Collecting an Oral History- Natalie Looyer
 - How the information should be protected for future generations- Kathleen Stringer
- 12:00pm Workshop: Telling the story of your organisation- Victoria, Natalie, and Kathleen
- people they might identify and
 - how the material might be used
- 12:25pm What next- Opportunity to run workshop on subject with Heritage Unit- CCC- Victoria
- 12:30pm Wrap up. Thank you and Karakia- Ali