Being a full time student would assist being able to get to and from course alot easier and cost effective as living costs have gone up so much, and it makes it hard living on a student budget. To be able to find a free park in a close walking distance to course, have to be there before 6am in the morning, if you get there after that you have to pay from $5 to $20 for parking a day, which is just not financially viable.

Is borrowing and repaying through general rates the right approach for this regionally significant event?

No

How else might we pay for our share of this work?

Fundraising, holding a community event that is appealing to all ages, for a small gold coin donation,

How do you think recovery from flooding of this scale – events that impact state highways, bridges, rail and power for example – should be funded in the future?
