24.1%. is too much to ask of ratepayers. Delay , tone down your plans , Keep within your budget or think of another way. Govt grant..Fundraise.. raffle.. crowd fund. Donations. There are more people out there than ratepayers alone. Target others. Think outside the square and beyond exorbitant rates increases

Invocation Let the common man , Those that can't afford it, those that aren't even scraping by pay for the problems Let no one think Beyond taxing some more the already well taxed And let the overpaid fleece us in Rates and taxes for fanciful schemes That make them (and their consultants) feel important . Let the people pay We will have our way Lets pretend they have a say 24.1 % increase -NO WAY Let the people pay We will have our way
