Kia ora,

I only have one comment to make in regard to the proposed annual plan and that is that the 24% average increase is outrageous. I have no interest in reading the rest of the plan in detail as with this sort of preposterous number I feel completely disengaged from the rest of your proposals. For comparison my salary increase this year was 1%. CPI is expected to be 6-7%.

Apologies for having to be so blunt, but in short, get real.

Tim Stedman
