

From: Sophie Jackson
Sent: Sunday, 3 April 2022 2:44 pm
To: Have your Say
Subject: Rates increase and climate change levy

Follow Up Flag: Follow up
Flag Status: Completed

You don't often get email from

Learn why this is important

To Whom it may concern,

I Sophie Eleanor Jackson are writing to inform you I do not agree with the proposed rate increase for Canterbury, mainly to cover what i consider flood relief funding which should come from central govt. Drought relief is not funded by local govt, nor should flood relief.

A climate change levy could be introduced but more stakeholder engagement is required to educate people and ensure they are on board with local govt and issues faced across the region.

Kind regards

Sophie Jackson